Inspiring our children

AIM after school French Classes

17th October 2017

Dear Parents,

I am really pleased to tell you that after half-term, we will be having Lynn Cook, a specialist French teacher to teach the children on Thursday afternoons as part of our curriculum. The teacher uses an approach called 'AIM', which involves speaking the language right from the earliest stages of learning.

In addition, she is also offering a French club for 45 minutes after school on Thursdays. She writes,

'AIM (the Accelerative Integrated Methodology for Language Learning) is a Canadian method for learning languages, where children learn in a fun and natural way and are able to express themselves in French right from the first class. Incorporating story-telling, songs and plays it is one of the most popular and effective language programmes used in Canada and is also hugely popular in the USA, Australia, New Zealand and the Netherlands.'

My name is Lynn Cook and I am a lead practitioner of AIM in the UK. Having taught with this method for the last six years I am now making classes available to students in a small number of schools in the South Lakeland area. Classes at Lindale Primary School will begin after half term, initially running for 6 weeks from the 2nd November. They will take place each Thursday from 3:15pm-4:00pm and cost £30 for the half term, which works out at £5 per child per class. This would be payable on 2nd November by cash or cheque to me, Lynn Cook, and not the school.

I look forward to working with your children and supporting them on their exciting language-learning journey.'

Warmest regards,
Lynn Cook

If you would like your child to take part in these after school French classes, please
